 1.40 miles there and back . Are you prepared for the challenge on this rated difficult trail? This trail travels through open and wooded habitat on undulating terrain. Deer, fox, raccoon and squirrels are seen quite frequently.
 Faust Park is 200 acres located on a tract of land that once belonged to the second Governor of Missouri, Frederick Bates. His estate, Thornhill, includes a house, barn and three log buildings that were built around 1817-1819. Faust also is the home to the Butterfly House, the Symphony Music School, the historic village, and the Dentzel Carousel.
