

FARMERS' MARKET FOOD VENDOR CATEGORIES

Missouri Farmer	Farmers' Market Vendor Permit Required	Farmers' Market Food Establishment Permit Required
No Fee - $0.00 	$50.00 First Farmers' Market Location $30.00 Second Farmers' Market Location $30.00 Third Farmers' Market Location $193.00 Maximum Fee	$75.00 First Farmers' Market Location $50.00 Second Farmers' Market Location $50.00 Third Farmers' Market Location $193.00 Maximum Fee
A farmer residing in the state of Missouri who grows or produce a farm product in accordance with Section 150.030, RSMo. May provide samples, following the sampling guidelines. (Completed registration form required.)	A farmer who's farm is outside of the state of Missouri who sells whole uncut produce and provides samples following the sampling guidelines.	A person that does onsite cooking, of food products. May provide samples, following the sampling guidelines.
A person selling/providing prepackaged Non -potentially hazardous foods	A person that sells potentially hazardous food products in bulk or prepackaged. May provide samples, following the sampling guidelines.	A farmer who is cooking onsite. May provide samples following the sampling guidelines.
Any farmer selling whole and uncut produce. May provide samples following the sampling guidelines.	A person that sells bulk non-prepackaged food products. May provide samples, following the sampling guidelines.	A person that sells non-prepackaged food products that are prepared onsite. May provide samples, following the sampling guidelines.
Examples of food: Farm or farm products, whole, uncut produce, sampling fruits and vegetables. Whole eggs, frozen meats, poultry, and dairy from an inspected processor. Prepackaged jams jellies, dry baked goods, beef jerky, and dried fruits, vegetables and mixes, honey, nuts.	Examples of food: Bulk non-potentially hazardous food items such as dry pasta, spices, dry beans, dry mixes, unshelled nuts, dried fruits, un packaged baked goods; meat, poultry, eggs, cheese, prepackaged potentially hazardous foods sealed ice cream, meat, eggs, application will be reviewed on an individual basis.	Examples: hand scooped ice cream, shaved ice, snow cones, popcorn and kettle korn, coffee, tea and hot chocolate that use milk products, lemonade, waffles, sandwiches, fresh pasta, barbeque, omelets, fried foods, etc.

A non-profit organization with a State Tax Exempt Letter is not subject to fees. (Type of permit issued is determined by the type of food sold/provided.)

Missouri farmers that grow or process a farm produce or farm product are not subject to permit fees. However, the produce or product is not exempted from the St. Louis County rules and regulations. All products must be from an approved source with proper labeling as required by the St. Louis County Food Code.